

The Wisconsin do-not-call-list should be the model for the nation. Any attempt to lessen its effectiveness, by permitting banks to call past customers, etc. is absolutely reprehensible.